

18TH INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF CONSUMER LAW CONFERENCE (IACL)

July 19–21, 2023

in Hamburg, Germany

The 18th IACL-Conference is hosted by the Institute for Responsible Finance (iff) and will take place on July 19th–21st, 2023, at the Rudolf Steiner Haus in Hamburg/Germany. It will be our great pleasure to welcome academics, judges, lawyers, representatives of regulatory authorities as well as consumer organizations from all around the globe.

The overarching theme of the conference is Challenges and Unanswered Questions of Consumer Law. Papers on various topics will be presented during concurrent workshop sessions following plenary sessions. Our distinguished keynote speakers will address the following topics in the plenary sessions:

JULY 19, 2023

Dr. Felicia Monye Nwanne,
Professor, University of Nigeria
The Gains, Challenges, and Unanswered Questions of Consumer Protection

Dr. Dagmar Schiek, Professor,
University College Cork
Consumer Protection and Social Integration Properties of Anti-Discrimination Law

JULY 20, 2023

Dr. Yeşim M. Atamer, Professor,
University of Zurich
Sustainability – Could Sales
Law Play a Role?

Dr. Daniel Markovits, Guido
Calabresi Professor, Yale Law School
Consumer Protection, Behavioral Economics & Democracy

JULY 21, 2023

Dr. Sarah Legner, Professor,
EBS University
Smart Contracts and Consumer Protection

Dr. Ralf Michaels, Professor, Director,
Max Planck Institute for Comparative and International Private Law
From Consumer Law to Sustainer Law?

The preliminary schedule of the workshops will be available beginning of June on the conference website.